 Edmond Supero

As a recent graduate with a Bachelor's degree in Science and Information Technology (BSIT), I have a strong foundation in computer systems, web development, and design. I am proficient in general computer operations and skilled in graphic design using tools like Adobe Photoshop and Canva. I also have experience creating websites using user-friendly platforms such as Wix and WordPress. Motivated to learn and grow, I am eager to contribute to a dynamic team and continue developing my expertise in the tech field.
